

Awakened

(Siregar/Gentry)

Intro     D   C   Bb   C

          D            A                            C                            G

Verse 1    The sun sets in my life, my eyes grow heavy from the

Bm                            A                            G                            D darkness that I've fought against through time

                          A                            C                            G

I've tried my best dear Lord and now I fall asleep within

Bm            A                            G

your warmth and know that you'll protect me always

C                            G                            C                            G                            Bb

Chorus    I dream of better days, of clouds which drift my way,

F     Bb                            F     C

I see them open up and hear the trumpets sound

G     C     G     Bb

You come down from the sky, I hear the Angels cry

F     Bb                            A

I'm feeling happiness, awakened in Your arms

Verse 2    You comfort all my fears, you've brought me to your home, through the shadows and the valleys that surround me
          I lie down dear Lord, in pastures green that lead beside still waters that run throughout my soul

(Repeat Chorus)

Instrumental D A C G D A C G

D C Bb D C D

Bridge You shower down eternal fountains within me, My heart is

C Bb A

swelling from the love that you've awakened

Chorus G D G D F
I dream of better days, of clouds which drift my way,

C F C G
I see them open up and hear the trumpets sound

D G D F
You come down from the sky, I hear the Angels cry

C F E
I'm feeling happiness, awakened in Your arms

Copyright © June 2002 Rhesa Siregar and Paul Gentry